

SENIORS FILIBUSTER MOTION

Yearbook Dedicated To Father Higgins

Yearbook co-editors George Nellies and Jim Pallace have announced that this year's Evergreen Annual is to be dedicated to Rev. Thomas J. Higgins, S.J. The decision was made by a vote of the senior class which gave 70 of 114 votes to Fr. Higgins. Fr. Higgins teaches ethics to the seniors using his own text book, "Man as Man."

Baltimore's heaviest snowfall in quite a while caused the cancelling of classes last Thursday. This shot (taken on Friday) shows the walk in front of the Science Building roped off because of the danger of snow falling from the roof.

Hungarian Collection

On the first Friday of March, which was designated international Pax Romana Day, a collection was held on the campi of all American Catholic colleges and universities. The proceeds were given to CURA — College and University Relief Administration, and will be used to sponsor the education of Hungarian refugee students.

Here at Loyola, the campus delegation of NFCCS, (the U.S. branch of Pax Romana) held a collection, with the approval of the administration of the college, at the nine and twelve o'clock Masses. The amount donated was $107.04.

A Fine Showing

NFCCS feels this is an excellent and generous donation, and has expressed its gratitude and congratulations to all who contributed.

(Unfortunately the collection was not announced ahead of time, and most of the persons who donated didn't know what their money was going for. Had the collection been announced, much more might have been obtained. — Ed.)

Editorial

In the March 13 issue of the GREYHOUND there appeared an article on the Senior Voting Bill, which is currently before the Student Council.

The President of the Student Council, Salvatore Marzullo, took offense at certain parts of the article. — In fact, he was quite incensed.

Mr. Marzullo demanded an opportunity to vindicate himself. He requested us to permit him to reply to our article, and he stipulated that his reply should be published on page one of the GREYHOUND. We granted his request. He agreed to submit his letter to the GREYHOUND no later than Tuesday, March 18.

On Wednesday, March 19, the letter had not been received. The Editor of the GREYHOUND approached Mr. Marzullo on the subject. Mr. Marzullo recalled having promised a letter by Tuesday, March 18, but stated that now he was uncertain whether he would or would not write it.

As of our deadline date, we have heard nothing further from the President of the Student Council.

The Saccheri Mathematics Academy is conducting a seminar, in which students from Notre Dame College are participating. Here Bob Strauch is addressing the group. The president of the math club is Danny Heise, and the moderator is Fr. Koehler.

Seniors Block Council Action

By James Molloy

Xavier Lounge was the scene of almost unprecedented excitement the morning of March 14. The Student Council debate on the controversial election ordinance was the main topic on the agenda. A short diversion at the beginning of the meeting was the passage of a resolution to make reply to the GREYHOUND for discrepancies in the preceding issue.

An expectant silence descended upon the group as Joe O'Hara proposed an amendment to the election qualifications "that seniors not be eligible to vote for president of the student body and Athletic Association." Discussion was called for and after a brief pause Jim Pallace got the floor and began to read a history of the civil war.

Meeting Degenerates

The Lounge soon resembled the floor of Congress during a filibuster as the delegates began discussions at their places, walked around the floor to discuss parliamentary procedure and other topics. The small group of students viewing the proceedings began talking, wandering around and otherwise paying no attention.

Pallace then yielded the floor to George Nellies who began reading from an ethics text on the purpose of voting. After fifteen minutes of inaudible reading by the speakers order was called by the president Sal Marzullo.

Charles Fitzsimmons called the previous question which failed to receive the necessary two-thirds majority.

Freshmen Abstain

The Freshman delegates stated that their class was in favor of the Seniors voting but they abstained from voting on the question.

A compromise amendment to the amendment was proposed from the chair that this section of the ordinance not go into effect until ninety days after passage. This motion was defeated by the proponents of the original amendment.

Shortly after the period came to an end and the meeting was adjourned. The issue was carried over until the next session.

Flash

Reduced in number because of the snow-storm, the Student Council anti-climactically passed the controversial election ordinance which bars seniors from voting for the president of the student body and president of the Athletic Association. There was a rider amendment though that prevents this from affecting the forth-coming election in April.

Joe O'Hara again proposed the amendment to the election ordinance which would prevent seniors from voting for the two top student offices. Jim Pallace proposed a further amendment which would make this not go into effect until September '58, and would prevent any further amendment until September '59. After rather brief discussion this was passed and the main amendment was ratified eight to four.

Student Council

The Greyhound feels that it is necessary to acquaint the student body with the facts of the issue that is now before the student council, i.e., should the seniors be allowed to vote. Unfortunately for all concerned, the fight on the floor of the council has degenerated to a clash of personalities. The issue has been clouded by ridiculous and extraneous matter and statements. The Greyhound can see only two valid points in the entire argument; one pro and one con. These points are:

1. The seniors feel, that since they have had the experience of four years, they should have the right to vote; for their vote will have a stabilizing and guiding effect.
2. The underclassmen feel that since the seniors will not be subject to the people for whom they voted, they should not have the right to vote.

Section 3. The functions of the Council are:

- a. to provide a means whereby the sentiments of the Student Community may be expressed on matters of common concern to the College
- b. to consider and report on all matters submitted to it by the Administration, Faculty or any other recognized college organization.
- c. to provide a repository for yearly reports of each class and student activity.
- d. to submit memoranda, reports and resolutions to the Administration, Faculty or other recognized College organization for their consideration.
- e. to pass ordinances for regulating student activities; which ordinances become effective as College policy if approved by the Reverend Father President
- f. To establish by-law for regulating the Council's procedure and internal activities.

the Watchdog

BY JERRY DYER

Even though the lead story of the issue of March 13 GREYHOUND was journalistically wrong, and contextually inappropriate at least it said something. We don't particularly agree with the thought, but we congratulate the staff on at last having a thought (it's the first we can remember). But, if something has to be said, from now on we advise that it be said as it should be, editorially. By all means let's keep up original thought in this paper.

Well, we've laughed at the ROTC in the past, but the tactical operations they were carrying out on the field the other day made us stop and think. These men are working awfully hard to keep us free enough to write this drivel.

As a matter of fact we've laughed at too many things, we've run out of things to gripe about. For a change lets talk about things we like.

We like the way Doc Macksey falls off the desk.

We like the first rehearsals of "Cocktail Party" by the Dramatics Society.

We like the way Lefty managed to salvage a good season out of a potentially wretched one.

We like the way the Glee Club sounded despite the way that Marymount J.C.'s Glee Club sounded. Especially we liked the prowess with which Mr. McCall directed.

We like J. Jerome Frese's prose-poetry.

We like the way the Notre Dame juniors did their Sing Song presentation.

Our Readers Write

To the Editor of the Greyhound:
The purpose of the Student Government, as I understand it, is to represent the student body. The representative is to vote in accordance with the consensus of opinion of his constituents.

The intent of the student government is to reflect in the legislation of the body the will of the majority of the students.

If by tricks and parliamentary procedure the will of the majority is thwarted, the council is not functioning in accordance with its purpose.

A filibuster defeats the aims of the democratic basis of the council. I feel that the student government representatives should work together as a unit toward the general good of the entire student body.

Warner Johnson, '60

(Reader Johnson is correct. The purpose of the Student Council is given in its constitution, Article I, Section 3. See cut. — Ed.)

the Best of the Skeptic

BY BOB PULA

After four year's distinguished service, Bob Pula is taking a well earned vacation from his column. This is the first in a series which will review the past four years of Skepticism. This column is taken from the first Skeptic Tank, published by Bob, during his freshman year, on March 23, 1955.

Recently, I read an article on cliches by Frank Sullivan, a very clever gentleman who is associated with the New Yorker. In his article, Mr. Sullivan paraded a whole army of worn-out expressions through the simple device of a dialogue. The dialogue, a question and answer affair, features a "cliche expert," who replies to every question with a hoary phrase.

Without Mr. Sullivan's permission, I would like to render a similar service to one of America's most singular contributions to the mighty stream (cliche) of world culture — the commerical.

Question: Miss Alice Emefttee, you are an expert on the commercial, sung and otherwise; are you not?

Answer: Yes, boy, I am. In fact

I am First Vice-President in Charge of Advertising for the Superlative Manufacturing Company of Dundalk.

Q. Dandy. Would you like to answer a few questions and, in so doing, illustrate the new American language which has set Esperanto back four centuries?

A. What's the good word?

Q. That's the idea. Now, if John Milton were living today, his favorite line would be —

A. Take tea and see.

Q. And King Oedipus would fall for —

A. Your eyes, the only two you'll ever have . . .

Q. While throughout The Three Musketeers we cry to hear D'Artagnan ask —

A. How are you fixed for blades?

Q. And, of course, Leonardo da Vinci would be piqued to learn that —

A. Duz does everything.

Q. I'm sure, Miss Emefttee, that Nostradamus should hang up his crystal ball for not knowing that—

A. There's a Ford in your future.

Q. While Luther Burbank would turn in his photosynthesis for failing to realize that —

A. Serutan is natures spelled backwards.

Q. Apparently, this new language satisfies all the demands of modern aesthetics. Let's continue. The paratroops in World War II were —

A. Good to the last drop.

Q. And Euclid discovered —

A. The * that made Mother stop baking.

Q. And what did the Maryland planters say when Lee requested bandages during the Civil War?

A. We are tobacco men, not medicine men.

Q. And, of course, the Indian chief turned from the twelfth funeral pyre of Gary Cooper and exclaimed —

A. It's toasted!

Q. And the national director of the S.P.C.A. would —

A. Walk a mile for a camel.

Q. Thanks loads, Alice. I feel that you have done a great ser-

Sophomore R.O.T.C. Students:

MAJOR IN LEADERSHIP

with the Advanced ARMY R.O.T.C. course

If you are a sophomore Army R.O.T.C. student, there are three important reasons why you should accept the challenge of applying for the Advanced R.O.T.C. course. As an advanced R.O.T.C. student, you will:

1. Learn to Lead

With R.O.T.C. you can actually take a course in Leadership—a course that will prepare you to think on your feet for an executive position, whether in military or civilian life. In addition, you will get practical experience in command responsibilities.

2. Attain Officer's Rank

As an R.O.T.C. graduate, you will fulfill your military obligation as an Army officer. You will not only enjoy the rank, pay and privileges of an Army officer, but will also have the satisfaction of serving your country in an important capacity.

3. Receive Extra Income

With the Advanced R.O.T.C. course, you will qualify for a subsistence allowance which comes to around $535 for the two-year course. You will also be paid $117 for your six-week summer camp training and receive a travel allowance of five cents per mile to and from the camp.

Lacrosse Team Opens Against Cornell Here

The novelty of a new thing wore off and the 1958 Greyhound Lacrosse Team settled down to work for its opening game against Cornell Monday here at Evergreen.

The first weeks of practice showed a battle among a dozen hopefuls for a spot on the first midfield. The problem is a new as well as a pleasant one for Coach Charlie Wenzel. The mid-fielders are led by Jim Kelly and Jim Vaeth, returning from last year; and Bill Noonberg, a transfer student, who played last season with the Maryland L.C. They are being pressed by John Kirby, John Allen, and Larry Samilton. Ready to fall in line are Rick Pyle, Joe O'Hara, and Jerry Beck.

Soph Joe Weber and freshmen Brian Flannery and Bob Reiter are also Middy hopefuls.

On the close attack Wenzel has worked with a plan which allows one of the four starting attackmen to run midfield for a while, then come back and rest while one of the other attackmen replaces him in the midfield. By running this system, Wenzel hopes to increase his goal-scoring potential. This attackman-midfielder will probably be either Jack Armstrong or All-American hope Mickey McFadden. Chuck Franklin is the final close attackman.

The defense positions have been pretty well settled at this time. Co-captain and three year veteran Bill Hooper will lead a unit for himself, junior Paul Flattery and soph Ray Kane. Bob Tillman and Tom Murphy are on the second defense unit.

Bucky Foote, Dipino Lead Baseballers

With 35 men reporting for opening practice, Greyhound baseball coach Lefty Reitz has been drilling his charges in preparation for the opening game on April 10, against Hofstra C. at home. Bad weather hampered most of the Hound's early practice sessions and pepper games in the gym were the order of the day.

Moving around the infield, veterans Tom Corcoran, Charlie Brown, seem to have the situation well in hand around the initial sack. Corcoran is a Junior, while Brown is a sophomore.

Captain Jack Beatty is the probable starter at second base, although Mike Weigman promises to give him plenty of competition.

With the loss of All Mason-Dixon third baseman Earl Hamper, through graduation, a gap has been left at third base. Freshmen Phil "Whitey" Sybert and Dave Gardner are two infield hopefuls who may fill that position.

Shortstop Bucky Foote and catcher Paul DiPino appear to be the only squad members who now have their positions nailed down. Foote is a standout both at the plate and in the field, while DiPino possesses a rifle arm and excellent slugging power. Both were All M-D 1st team last year.

It's anybody's guess, who will start in the outfield, with the possible exception of 2 year vet, Don Deinlien.

Dave Ebersole, Ray Short, and Leo Romeo head a formidable mound staff.

Freshman Mike Lawlor will also see plenty of action. Nappy Dougherty will serve as ass't coach, while Jim Henneman will tutor the pitchers.

Jack Beatty

Track Team Begins Campaign

Sprinter Hugh McKenna, who could be an outstanding runner, will be counted on heavily to spearhead this year's squad. Other trackmen are runners Ken Billeb, Paul Sherman, Bill Corcoran, and Stack Burton, hurdlers Richard Jones, Fitz Fitzimmons, and Joe Abbey, jumpers George Krapp, Vic Dragin, and Lenny Wood and shot and discus men George Heber and Ronnie Sacker. Sherman, Billeb, and Krapp all did well last year and should bolster this year's squad. One setback is that there is no pole vaulter, and Coach McElroy urges anyone interested to give it a try.

"We can't do any worse than we did last year," says Mac, "and we should do better. There are a lot of newcomers out, and if any of them come through, it might help out a lot. Anyway we're all looking forward to the meet with Gallaudet."

Ken Billeb

Colimore Is Optimistic About Coming Matches

Tennis at Loyola is in full swing, and Coach Vince Collimore is optimistic about this year's squad. "We're shaping up nicely, and with hard work and a few breaks, we could go all the way," says Coach Collimore. Last year Loyola finished second in its division, losing only two matches, both to Western Maryland College.

The top four spots will probably be dominated by Bob O'Connor and Jack Cummings, co-captains of this year's team, Mitch Twardowicz, and Tom Clifton. Cummings has built up a remarkable record during his time at Loyola, losing only one match in three years.

The leading contenders for the remaining two positions are Walt Sneyd, Sammy Donohue, and Donald Torres. Torres, a freshman was an M.S.A. champion last year at City College, and will be counted on greatly in the future. Others vying for positions on the squad are Frank Wiczynski, Spencer Gautney, Bob Breschi, and Mike Kelly.

The squad is working very hard, and Coach Collimore feels that a lot is being accomplished. All the boys are looking forward to the first match which is on April 2, with Brown University.

Vince Collimore

Intramurals Items

By J. Romulus Lindung
Sparked by Ferd Ruppel and Paul Corbett, the Ramblers downed the Hound Dogs 12-0. A 60 yard run by Bill Hartmann and a 20 yard pass to Ferd Ruppel from Corbett accounted for the only two touchdowns.

Entries for the intramural swimming team must be received by Friday, March 21. Bernie Karpers will coach the seniors, Mike Karpers the juniors, George Krapp and Joe Harrington the sophs, and the Powley twins will be with the freshmen.

The winner of the Hotshots-Bohs game plays the winner of the losers' bracket for the basketball championship. Five teams are in contention for the winner of the losers' bracket for the basketball championship, Dix, Hardy Six, Rodenhabs, and Vice Squad.

Softball entries must be presented to Nappy Doherty by Friday, March 28.
